Girls' Brigade

Will have their last meeting for the summer term Thursday 7 July and will then have their summer break.

We say a goodbye to Rebekah Rego as the Captain of 2nd Northolt GB and thank her for her leadership of this children's ministry. Rebekah has been involved with GB for many years from when she used to attend as a young participant and rising through the ranks as a young leader, to eventually taking over the responsibility of the group.

Rebekah is going to concentrate on her training for ministry and other commitments as a deacon for her own church at Oldfield Baptist. We are thankful that over the past months, Elisabeth, has joined 2nd Northolt GB and is going to take over the leadership of the company.

We are also grateful for the faithful service of Ruth, David and Tracy Taylor, Pat and Margaret R over the years with helping with GB. We thank God for all these volunteers for GB and pray that they will be blessed in whatever role they serve in and that God will continue to bring children and their families to enjoy this children's club.

Church Members' Meeting

There will be a meeting at 1pm on Sunday 17 July 2022.

The Regional Minister for the London Baptist Association, Rev Hany

Abdelmasih, will be conducting the meeting and helping us move forward as a church during the interregnum.

As there will be a slight gap between the end of the service and Rev Hany being available to come to NPBC, we are going to have a simple bring and share lunch, sandwiches and tea and coffee will be provided.

Non-members are welcome to attend the meeting as observers, but they will not be able vote on any decisions.
