

Prayer Points and Information

Continue to pray for God's blessing on Debbie and Jamie as they take the first steps in their marriage relationship.

For many families around the country, this week sees the first full week of the school holidays. Pray for all those who are in need of a break and restoration. Pray for those churches in holiday locations who seek to reach out to the visitors in their town or village. Pray too for the many churches who will run holiday clubs.

Pray for residents of inner cities who live in fear of antisocial behaviour and intimidation from street gangs. Give thanks for Christian initiatives offering hope and purpose to disaffected young people who are so often part of the problem, and ask God to help them. Give thanks for organisations working with people trying to break addictions to alcohol, drugs and other toxic substances, gambling, self-harm, eating disorders and other destructive behaviours. Pray that many will find peace and hope in Christ.

Pray for Afghanistan, which is one of the least reached nations in the world, with 84 per cent of Afghans never having heard the life-giving gospel of Christ. Pray for the Government, that solutions may be reached to share power and that stability would be restored. Pray that the local security services would be able to maintain safety for all. Pray for the Christian relief and development agencies that continue to serve in various ministries of care in Afghanistan. Pray for courage in the face of severe restrictions.

26 July 2015

Our congregation is made up of ordinary people meeting together to worship God. We are united in our faith in, and love for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you sense the presence and power of the Spirit of God as you worship with us.

Refreshments are served after the service, so please stay for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

*'The LORD is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in love.
The LORD is good to all;
he has compassion on all he has made.
All your works praise you, LORD;
your faithful people extol you.
They tell of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might,
so that all people may know of your mighty acts
and the glorious splendour of your kingdom.'*

Psalm 145:8-12
