

Prayer Points and Information

Let's pray for ourselves as a congregation – that we will grow together in genuine Christian love, that we will be transformed through the ongoing ministry of God's word, and that we will know insight and wisdom from God as we continue to reflect together on the shape of future ministry and leadership in the church.

Give thanks for – and pray for – those whose lives are dedicated to bringing sustenance, healing and other relief to the most vulnerable people in our world: in refugee camps, war zones, slums and other areas where poverty and injustice rob tens of thousands of their dignity and hope for the future.

Pray for those who are studying theology in order to live as salt and light through their careers in business, politics, overseas development, medicine, scientific research, education, law, social policy, church ministry, evangelism and Bible teaching.

Let's pray for those who dedicate their lives to the ministry of Bible translation in remote areas of the world. Pray for success in their language work, in understanding the culture, and in connecting with their communities. Pray that many people in these places will gladly receive the message of the gospel.

Pray for Peter Dunn, BMS Director for Mission, as he oversees the work of regional team leaders and facilitates their working together to support and to learn from one another. Pray too for Steve Sanderson, who plays a key role in facilitating the overseas mission work of BMS as Manager for Mission, helping with strategic thinking and financial management among other things.

29 May 2016

Our congregation is made up of ordinary people meeting together to worship God. We are united in our faith in, and love for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you sense the presence and power of the Spirit of God as you worship with us.

Refreshments are served after the service, so please stay for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

*'The waters saw you, God,
the waters saw you and writhed;
the very depths were convulsed...
Your thunder was heard in the whirlwind,
your lightning lit up the world;
the earth trembled and quaked.
Your path led through the sea,
your way through the mighty waters,
though your footprints were not seen.'*

Psalm 77:16-19
