

Prayer Points and Information

Let's pray for ourselves and each other – that we will take new steps on our journey with Christ during 2014. Ask God that the good news of salvation will flood our lives and our church with life, love, hope, and a desire to see other people come to know him for themselves.

Pray for Christians whose beliefs about certain issues may result in dismissal from a job or legal action against them.

In the light of the increasingly toxic pollution of the air, oceans, lakes and rivers, pray that the relevant people within national governments, industry and agriculture, would agree to work together for a cleaner environment. Ask God to prosper the work of A Rocha and Christian Ecology Link, which address important environmental concerns from a Christian perspective, encouraging prayer and action – at local community and global level.

Over the Christmas period, what appears to have started as a political argument has descended into military rebellion in South Sudan, one of the world's poorest countries. This has resulted in heavy fighting with at least 1,000 people killed and a further 180,000 displaced. Pray that the peace talks due to take place imminently will result in real and lasting peace. Pray too for the many people who are fearing for their lives, and those who have left their homes or lost loved ones in the last few weeks because of the ethnic unrest and fighting.

5 January 2014

Our congregation is made up of ordinary people meeting together to worship God. We are united in our faith in, and love for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you sense the presence and power of the Spirit of God as you worship with us.

Refreshments are served after the service, so please stay for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

'Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love he predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will – to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves.'

Ephesians 1:3-6
