

Prayer Points and Information

On Remembrance Sunday, without ever wanting to delight in the horrors of war, let's be thankful for those who have given their lives on our behalf. As we do so, let's commit to the Lord our ongoing concerns about the many parts of the world today where fighting, violence and bloodshed are an everyday occurrence.

Pray for those trying to find solutions to the growing violence of extreme groups in Syria, Iraq and elsewhere. Pray that intelligence agencies and security forces will succeed in containing serious terrorist threats.

Give thanks for the generosity of those who give to the BBC Children in Need Appeal each November, which over the years has raised over £740 million. Pray for continuing success for all such fundraising initiatives and for wisdom to those responsible for distributing this money.

Give thanks with David and Margie Whitehorn for their recent visit to Chad, for the welcome they received, the opportunities for ministry, and safe journeys. Pray for God to move in those who are hearing the gospel, that they will come to understand his love and hope; pray too for protection and unity for the team serving in the villages. Pray for David and Margie as they prepare for their next visit, on 23 November, to Guinea-Bissau, for several weeks: for discernment and humility as they listen, and for decisions about the Area conference they are trying to organise for October 2016.

8 November 2015

Our congregation is made up of ordinary people meeting together to worship God. We are united in our faith in, and love for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you sense the presence and power of the Spirit of God as you worship with us.

Refreshments are served after the service, so please stay for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

*'He will judge between the nations
and will settle disputes for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not take up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war anymore.
Come, house of Jacob,
let us walk in the light of the LORD.'*

Isaiah 2:4-5
