

Prayer Points and Information

On Remembrance Sunday, without delighting in the horror of war, let's be thankful for those who have given their lives on our behalf. As we do so, let's commit to the Lord our ongoing concerns about the many parts of the world today where fighting, violence and bloodshed are an everyday occurrence.

Pray for those trying to find solutions to the growing violence of extreme jihadist groups in Syria, Iraq and elsewhere. Pray that our intelligence agencies and security forces will succeed in containing serious terrorist threats from militants returning to the UK.

Let's continue to plead with God for mercy for those infected and affected by the Ebola virus, for the sick and dying, for the thousands of children who have been orphaned, for courageous health workers, for grieving families, for pastors trying to serve their churches and communities, for government officials and decision makers who formulate policies and responses, for protection for those working in educating communities, and for all those waking up each day to the devastation of Ebola.

Give thanks for the growing church in Nepal. Pray that pastors and church members may continue to grow spiritually and be agents of change in the country. Pray for Andy Saunders, equipping pastors at the Nepal Baptist Bible College. Pray for Jenny, as she develops counselling services in Kathmandu through the Elijah Counselling and Training Centre.

9 November 2014

Our congregation is made up of ordinary people meeting together to worship God. We are united in our faith in, and love for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you sense the presence and power of the Spirit of God as you worship with us.

Refreshments are served after the service, so please stay for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

*'He will judge between the nations
and will settle disputes for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not take up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war anymore.
Come, house of Jacob,
let us walk in the light of the LORD.'*

Isaiah 2:4-5
